The upcoming Adidas Nite Jogger Women is a modern iteration of the classic '70s adidas Nite Jogger. Constructed of coated nylon with reflective panels across its upper, the sneaker is detailed with Three Stripes on the sides and a retro-inspired tongue. Bright hits of orange are seen on the toe box area and heel for contrast, while a black Boost midsole and tricolor outsole tops it off.

The Adidas Nite Jogger Men has just released in a brand new color option for the warmer months and next up we have the 'Shock Pink' edition. Dressed straight forward, it comes with Black mesh along with synthetic and suede across the upper. Pink is then applied to the Three Stripes branding and accented across the heel while Yellow takes over the heel clip. Other details includes a White Boost midsole and Gum rubber outsole.

Some may remember the adidas ZX 500 RM that released part of the Dragon Ball Z collection and now the Three Stripes brand is launching the Adidas Nite Jogger Sale which comes in a Goku theme. This Adidas Nite Jogger Cheap comes dressed in a Solar Orange, Actora and Grey Two color combination. Constructed with mesh and nylon ripstop across the upper while suede lands on the overlays. Orange and Grey land on the upper while Blue is applied to the heel clip. Other details includes a White Boost midsole and Black rubber outsole.
