PITTSBURGH-- The Pittsburgh Steelers have their 90-man lineup in position, but like every summertime, changes are going to be made. Previous linebacker Vince Williams thinks he understands what that first change will be. ♦After a remarkable period with the Pittsburgh Maulers in the USFL, Williams thinks fellow inside linebacker Reuben Foster is the following gamer to authorize with the Steelers. ♦Foster ended up the 2023 season with 53 tackles and an interception, and had 7 takes on, a sack and also a tackle for loss in the group's championship loss to the Birmingham Stallions. ♦The Steelers lately added a sixth inside linebacker to their roster, authorizing former Las Vegas Raider Nick Kwiatkoski. Nonetheless, last summer season, they brought 7 inside backers with them to training camp, and are presently maintaining starter Cole Holcomb on a pitch count as he recoups from foot surgery.

♦So, if there was a setting they should contribute to, inside linebacker is most likely it. ♦When it comes to where they can develop room, the Steelers currently have 13 pass receivers and also 11 defensive backs on their lineup. They likewise have 7 offending guards and also seven offensive takes on, so finding space should not be much of an obstacle Custom Jersey.
